

EIGHT HURT AT A CROSSING.

Deckertown Express Crashes
Into an Electric Car at Paterson.

CAR AND ENGINE WRECKED.

Passengers Jammed Into a Confused, Struggling Mass Beneath the Debris.

ONE WOMAN FATALY INJURED.

Engineer Had Slacked Up, but Started Again, Thinking the Electric Car Would Not Move.

PATERSON, N. J., June 18.—The Deckertown express, on the New York, Susquehanna and Western Road, running at a rate of thirty-five miles an hour, ran into and demolished an electric car at the River street crossing at 8:15 o'clock this morning.

The car was filled with passengers, most of them teachers and pupils on their way to school.

The injured are:
JOHN A. GRIMM, conductor of the electric car, injured.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

MATILDA CLAXTON, school teacher, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

FRANK D. MCKENNY, principal of school No. 10, injured.

LADRA BIRCHENHUGH, school teacher, slight injuries about the head and back.

ELLEN CULLEN, an elderly woman, injured internally; taken to her home at 71 Marshall street.

MATTHEW BOWLER, injured about the head and back.

MUCH SYMPATHY FOR CURTIS.

Daughter of the Man He Shot
Says He Did Right.

He Is Held Pending the Inquest on Moran on June 28.

All the witnesses in the case of the shooting of Philip Moran, who tried to kill his daughter Frances and was himself killed, in the apartments of his five children, 562 East One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, on Saturday night, appeared before Coroner Dobbs this morning and related the story of the shooting with little variation from what they told the police immediately after the tragedy.

Harvey Curtis, twenty years old, who had told Policeman Devine that he fired a shot at Moran which may have caused his death, was sent to the City Prison pending the Coroner's inquest, which was set down for June 28, at 10:30 o'clock.

Policeman Devine told Coroner Dobbs that when he fired the shot, he was apparently dying. Moran managed to say: "I'm shot in the back. Harvey Fitzsimmons shot me."

Young Fitzsimmons denied that he had fired the shot, and on his statement that he was the one who shot Moran, Fitzsimmons was exonerated by Coroner Dobbs.

The Coroner expressed much sympathy for Curtis. The young man, who is engaged to be married to the daughter of the man who shot him, is the best possible reputation among his acquaintances.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

Curtis is a mild-mannered young fellow, with a soft, low voice. Annie Moran appears to be devoted to him. The girl is engaged to be married to him, and she is the daughter of the man who shot him.

SALOON-KEEPERS IN COURT.

Grand Round-Up of Excise Law
Violators.

49 in One Tribunal Alone—Three Policemen Beaten.

Policemen Bush and Boret, of the Fifth street station, made charges of assault against Nicholas Hayne, of 114 Forsyth street; Jacob Reinz, of 117 Elizabeth street; and Charles McJannet, of 132 East Forty-third street, in Essex Market Police Court today.

Last night Officer Bush went into John Steiner's saloon at 353 Bowers to make an excise arrest. He found Hayne, the bartender, serving drinks to six customers in front of the bar. Bush says that when he told Hayne he was a policeman, Hayne began to curse him and struck him in the face. The two other defendants came to the bartender's assistance and assaulted the policeman.

Policeman Boret, who was in front of the saloon, put in an appearance. Both policemen were badly beaten. Boret's face was bruised and his new suit was torn. Boret was in uniform. Three buttons were torn from his coat and his watch was broken in the struggle. The three men were held for trial. Hayne was charged with assault and battery, and the other two with assault and battery on a policeman.

The policeman testified very strongly against the grocery clerk, who sold him two boxes of matches for one cent, but the case was evidently settled, and the prisoner was discharged, as he made no affidavit against him. It was not until the saloon shortly after 8 o'clock last night," said he, "and found five people in the place. I saw nothing but a crowd of men. I saw a man who was a saloon-keeper told me the people were friends of his who were paying him a visit."

"Step down, officer," said the justice, "and make your complaint. There is enough evidence before me to hold the saloon-keeper for trial." The policeman looked surprised.

The policeman, of the Union Market Court, this morning charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

The largest number of Excise violators ever arraigned in Harlem Court was disposed of by Justice Weide this morning. The Excise Law violators were charged with violating the Excise Law. They were both discharged. For the past year Stringer has been arrested, and he has always been discharged. The policeman testified that it was wondered why he made the arrests. These are the arrests that the saloon-keepers were charged with.

William H. Hamilton, of 143 Broome street; Robert Peters, of 155 Montgomery street; John J. Hamilton, of 224 Madison street; Carl Wolk, of 106 Forsyth street; Abraham Feldenkrit, of 115 Delaware street; Adolph Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; Charles Knitz, of 52 Second avenue; and Christian Knitz, of 52 Second avenue.

B. Altman & Co.

Tuesday.

500 yards Heavy
Bleached Table
Damask, 68 in. wide

Also,
Fine
Marseilles
Bed Spreads

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

2.28 ea.

68 yd.

Tuesday,

June 19th.

Night Gowns trimmed with lace or fine embroidery, in various styles,

75c.

Cambric Gowns, arranged in jabot effects down the front,
trimmed with embroidery,

$1.25.

Worth $2.00.

Cambric Skirts, deep ruffle
of handsome embroidery,

$1.25.

Muslin Skirts, tucked, Cambric ruffle,

35c.

Muslin Drawers, Tambour
edge and tucks,

35c.

Lord & Taylor.

Broadway & 20th St.

Lawyer Platt's Funeral.

The Well-Known Connector to Be Buried Wednesday Morning.

The funeral of Lawyer James N. Platt, who died suddenly Saturday night of heart failure at his residence, 27 West Twenty-first street, will be held Wednesday morning at Calvary Church, Twenty-first street and Fourth avenue.

Mr. Platt was one of the oldest and best-known members of the New York Bar. He was seventy-eight years old, a native of Connecticut and a graduate of Williams College.

After graduation he came to New York and began studying law in James W. Gerard's office. Subsequently he became a member of the law firm of Platt, Gerard & Buckley. This partnership became, some years later, by the death of Mr. Gerard, the retirement of Mr. Gerard and the accession of Mr. John H. Platt, the well-known firm of Platt & Howers.